Tue, Oct 1, 2013, 2 pm: MultiPiano

"The MultiPiano project brings together some of Israel's most brilliant and promising pianists of today," says Zubin Mehta, Music Director of the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra. MultiPiano is a unique keyboard spectacle, presenting Israel's future generation of virtuoso pianists in a celebration of pianos in ever-changing combinations – in one and two pianos, with four, six and eight hands. Its repertoire ranges from fully-fledged original masterworks to dazzling virtuosic arrangements and showpieces. Featuring Tomer Lev, Berenika Glixman, Daniel Borovitzky and Yuval Gilad.

Tue, Nov 12, 2 pm: Kristin Lee, violin

Korean-American violinist Kristin Lee has been praised by The Strad for her "rare stylistic aptness" and "mastery of tone and rare mood in a performer of any age." A violinist of remarkable versatility and impeccable technique, Ms. Lee is a winner of Astral Artists' 2010 National Auditions and a top prizewinner of the 2012 Walter W. Naumburg Competition. An accomplished chamber musician, Ms. Lee is a member of The Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center, following her completion of a three-year residency as a CMS Two artist.

Tue, Dec 3, 2 pm: Steven Lin, piano

A victory at the 2012 Concert Artists Guild Victor Elmaleh Competition is the latest in a growing list of awards for Steven Lin, an immediately engaging and imaginative young Taiwanese-American pianist. Also in 2012, he was a prizewinner at the William Kapell International Competition and The Juilliard School's Gina Bachauer Piano Competition and claimed an unprecedented three honors at the 2012 International Hilton Head Piano Competition. The Baltimore Sun declared his recent performance of Rachmaninoff's Rhapsody on a Theme of Paganini with the Baltimore Symphony "elegantly refined."

Tue, Jan 14, 2 pm: Lysander Piano Trio

The winner of the 2012 Concert Artists Guild Victor Elmaleh Competition, this dynamic piano trio has been awarded top honors at the 2010 Fischhoff National Chamber Music Competition, the 2011 Coleman Chamber Ensemble Competition (Grand Prize) and the 2011 J. C. Arriaga Chamber Music Competition (First Prize). Since its founding in 2009, the ensemble has enjoyed performances at Lincoln Center's Alice Tully Hall and David Rubenstein Atrium, Merkin Concert Hall, Weill Recital Hall at Carnegie Hall and the Kennedy Center. Featuring Itamar Zorman, violin; Michael Katz, cello and Liza Stepanova, piano.

Tue, Feb 11, 2 pm: ECCO (East Coast Chamber Orchestra)

One of America's most exciting self-conducted chamber orchestras, ECCO is a dynamic collective that combines the strength and power of a great orchestral ensemble with the personal involvement and sensitivity of a superb chamber group. Debuts in venues such as New York's Town Hall and Washington, D.C.'s Kennedy Center confirmed ECCO's position as one of the most exceptional ensembles of today's generation, whose fresh interpretations, coupled with passionate and joyous playing, earn them standing ovations and re-engagements. ECCO is comprised of soloists, chamber musicians, members of major American orchestras and Grammy award winners.

Tue, Mar 11, 2:15 pm: Henry Schneider Scholarship Concert

Featuring talented young students from Kaufman Music Center's Lucy Moses School. Preceded by the Annual Scholarship Luncheon.

Tue, Apr 8, 2 pm: Paul Huang, violin

First Prize Winner of the 2011 Young Concert Artists International Auditions and the 2009 International Violin Competition Sion-Valais in Switzerland, 22-year-old Taiwanese-American violinist Paul Huang is recognized for his eloquent music making, effortless virtuosity and compelling stage presence. Recipient of the 2012 Helen Armstrong Violin Fellowship of YCA, Mr. Huang has performed as soloist in Hungary with the Budapest Dohnányi Symphony, with the Orquesta Sinfónica Nacional in Mexico City and the Taipei Symphony in Taiwan.

Tue, May 13, 2 pm: Ariel Quartet

Characterized by its youth, brilliant playing and soulful interpretations, the Ariel Quartet has quickly earned a glowing international reputation. In January 2012 the Quartet was named quartet-in-residence at the University of Cincinnati's College-Conservatory of Music, an astonishing accomplishment for such a young ensemble. The quartet has won Grand Prize at the 2006 Fischhoff National Chamber Music Competition, First Prize at the international Franz Schubert competition in Graz, Austria (2003) and the Székely Prize for their performance of Bartók, as well as the overall third prize at the Banff International String Quartet Competition in 2007.
